Candidate Filing Definitions

The Declaration of Candidacy form is used to file for an elective office.

An election jurisdiction is any political subdivision or jurisdiction of the state from which officials are elected.

The filing officer for candidates of Federal, Statewide, and joint county Legislative or joint county Judicial districts (a district where voters from more than one county vote upon the office) is the Secretary of State. The filing officer for single county Legislative or Judicial districts and all other offices is the County Auditor. The Superintendent of Public Instruction designates the filing officer for joint county school districts. For any other joint county nonpartisan offices, the filing officer is the County Auditor of the county in which the majority of the voters of the district reside.

An indigent candidate is a candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of candidate filing to pay the filing fee.

A joint county district is an election jurisdiction comprised of voters from more than one county.

A filing fee petition is a petition signed by individuals supporting the candidacy of an indigent candidate. The petition is submitted in lieu of the filing fee for the office sought. The petition must contain at least one signature for each dollar of the filing fee required.

A short term is the brief period of time starting upon the completion of the certification of an election and ending with the start of the full term. It is applicable only when the office was filled by an appointee caused by a vacancy occurring after the last election at which the office could have been voted upon for an unexpired term. Short term elections always run in conjunction with a full term election and do not apply to the office of School Board Director.

An unexpired term occurs when there is a vacancy and a person is appointed to fill the vacated position. The position is required to appear on the ballot at the next regular election to fill the remainder of the term (the unexpired term).

A vacancy occurs when an officeholder meets one of the criteria provided in RCW 42.12.010, including death, resignation, and removal from office.

A void in candidacy occurs when an election has been scheduled and no valid declaration of candidacy has been filed, or all persons filing declarations of candidacy have died or been disqualified.

Content

The County Auditor is required to reject any statement containing obscene, vulgar, profane, scandalous, libelous or defamatory matter, or language which in any way cites, counsels, promotes or advocates hatred, abuse, violence and/or hostility toward, or which tends to cause ridicule or shame upon any person or group of persons by reason of sex, race, color, religion or manner of worship or any language or matter the circulation of which is prohibited by Federal law.

The County Auditor shall render a decision within two business days of the appeal and such decision to accept or reject the statement or portion of the statement shall be final. Write-In Candidates

Qualifications

A write-in candidate may file a Declaration of Write-In Candidacy no later than the day before the Primary or General Election.

In order to file a Declaration of Write-In Candidacy, you must be qualified to assume office if elected.

If you filed a Declaration of Candidacy for the same office at the preceding Primary as either a regular or write-in candidate, you are not eligible to be a write-in candidate for the General Election.

Advantages

Filing as a write-in candidate allows voters to write your name, or a recognizable variation of your name, under the office heading and have the vote count for you. Minor variations of your name will be accepted as long as the voter's intent is discernable. If you file as a declared write-in for the Primary and you qualify to move on to the General, the party preference you list on your declaration form is printed on the ballot. If you do not file as a write-in candidate and you qualify to move on to the General, "States No Party Preference" is printed on the ballot.

Restrictions

As a write-in candidate, your name will not be printed on the ballot and will not appear in the online voters' guide or any printed voters' pamphlet.

Should you qualify for the General Election ballot by gathering the greatest number, or second greatest number, of votes cast and at least 1% of the total votes cast for the race in the Primary, your name will be printed on the General Election ballot and will appear in the online voters' guide and the state voters' pamphlet, if applicable.

Accessible Voting Equipment

Availability

Accessible voting equipment is available at the Auditor's Office during business hours beginning 20 days prior to each election until 8:00 p.m. election night. The equipment is called the eSlate Electronic Voting System (eSlate).

How it Works

When a voter arrives at the Auditor's Office to vote using the eSlate, election staff will issue an access code to the voter. The correct ballot for the voter will appear when he or she enters the access code into the eSlate. The voter can then use the Select Wheel to move between choices, the Enter button to select choices, the Previous and Next buttons to go back and forward one page, and the Cast Ballot button to cast the voter's final ballot choices.

Accessibility Features

The eSlate is available to any voter wishing to use it, but the equipment has special features to allow voters with disabilities to vote independently. Headphones with built in volume control are available for voters who may have trouble reading the ballot including voters who are blind or visually impaired. Tactile input switches are available to assist voters who have mobility impairments. In addition, a "sip-n-puff" device may be connected to the voting equipment.

For more information regarding the eSlate Electronic Voting System, or for a demonstration, please call the Elections Department at (360) 427-9670 ext. 469.
